

Answers

1. Sail, Spars, Line, Tail.
2. A kite is a tethered flying object; heavier than, but lifted, by wind.
3. Flat kites, Box kites, Foil kites, Sport/stunt kites.
4. Diamond, Triangle, Square, Rectangle, Trapezoid, Hexagon, Octagon, Rectangle, Pentagon – just about any symmetrical shape.
5. Gives it balance; drag; and makes it look bigger and more beautiful in the sky.
6. Festivals; fishing; divination; sport; warning signals; aerial photography; pulling boats, buggies, cars; and, of course, fun.
7. Power lines; trees; buildings; roads; other people; thunderstorms
8. 400 feet (or 125 meters) – this is a New Zealand Civil Aviation Regulation